

Festival churches

- Festival churches: Church of England web page.
- Festival churches: Diocese of York Summary, (updated February 2022).
- Festival churches: The Diocese of Oxford has announced that St Mary the Virgin, Drayton Beauchamp, will be the first church in the diocese to be awarded Festival Church status. The building will now remain open for worship and serve as a welcoming and functional community space. (9 January 2022).
- Church types: A Time to Change Together: Resourcing Sustainable Church: Diocese of Lincoln. (2021/2)
- “Major Churches” and “Festival Churches” – II: (9 December 2019).
- “Major Churches” and “Festival Churches” – I: (4 December 2019).
- The Church of England and “Festival Churches”: the Norwich model: Stuart Jones, of Birketts LLP and Registrar of the Diocese of Norwich, explains the Diocesan Churches Trust model further. (18 February 2016).
- The Church of England and “Festival Churches”: update : Further thoughts by Trevor Cooper. (18 February 2016).
- The Church of England and “Festival Churches”: A guest post by Trevor Cooper, Chairman of the Council of The Ecclesiological Society. (14 February 2016).
- CofE Simplification Report – Key Recommendations: Para 13 of the Simplification Task Group Report. (15 January 2015).

Last updated: 17 July 2022 at 21:45.